COUNTY DOT ANNOUNCES UPDATE ON CRITTENDEN ROAD PROJECT AT RAIL TRAIL CROSSING

Monroe County's Department of Transportation announced that reconstruction of a portion of Crittenden Road, in the vicinity of the railroad crossing, along with drainage improvements, starts Monday, June 28, 2004. Construction should be completed by the end of August.

Detour signs will be posted for motorists around Crittenden Road to the north, via West Henrietta and East River Roads through the Genesee Valley Park area for a period of between three to four weeks.

Residents, who will have access to their properties, will be notified ahead of time of any temporary accessibility issues.
